Unit Alcohol and Drug Counselors

Due to various scheduling conflicts, the Unit Alcohol and Drug Counselor training class scheduled April 12 to 16 will now be held April 26 to 30 in the community counseling center classroom, building 2948, Panzer Kaserne. All Criminal Investigation Division background checks must be completed or documentation to verify the processing of such an investigation must be received by the Alcohol and Drug Control Office prior to the beginning of class. Also, each UADC primary and alternate must process an original of their commander's appointment orders on the initial day of the class. For more info regarding unit testing call Linda Donaldson, 07031-15-835, or email (donaldsonl@6asg.army.mil).

Annual Briefing for Local Nationals

The Security Office has scheduled five Subversion and Espionage Directed Against the Army briefings for all local national employees (as required by UR 381-12), which will be given in German by the Stuttgart MID. The following hour-long sessions have been scheduled May 3, 1 p.m. at the Patch Theater and May 4, 9:30 a.m. at the Kelley Theater. For details call Aminta Arrington, 0711-729-2518.

Honor Outstanding Teens

Nominations are now being accepted for the Commanding General's Teen Recognition program. Any adult with personal knowledge of a local teen's outstanding accomplishments is encouraged to take part in this annual event. Submissions must be a one-page summary with emphasis on community service, self-improvement, extracurricular activities, role modeling, work experience, scholastic achievement and other attributes. Community members can call any youth service for information or assistance.

Consumer Alert: Sneakers Recalled

The Army and Air Force Exchange Service in conjunction with Nike announces a worldwide hazardous recall of Nike 1999 infant's "Little Air Jordan" sneakers (model number 132549-102). The shoes come in white with red paint trim. The red trim contains amounts of lead that exceed federal standards for children's products. The shoes come in sizes 2C through 10C. The word "Jordan" is on the outside tongue of the shoe. Customers should return the shoes to their nearest exchange for a full refund.

Upcoming Safety Meeting

The next 6th ASG Safety and Environmental Quality Control Council meeting is April 6, 10:30 a.m. to noon, Kelley Barracks, building 3315 in the command conference room. Attendance of your unit/organization safety personnel is a must.

The tentative agenda for the safety portion includes accident statistics for second quarter, fiscal year 1999; review of current RAC 1 and 2 safety hazard listing; eye examination for computer users; and USAREUR military vehicle safety and dispatch procedures. For details call Hans Dreizler, safety manager, 0711-4212-2752.

Shops Get Rid of Unwanted Vehicles

Need somebody to take that old unserviceable or disabled vehicle off your hands? Local auto crafts centers provide the service for $75 when you turn your lemon over to Morale, Welfare and Recreation – the positive alternative to abandoning it and facing potential disciplinary action. For details call Kelley Auto Crafts, 0711-729-2603, or Panzer Auto Crafts, 07031-15-555.

National Alcohol Awareness Month

In recognition of March as National Alcohol Awareness Month, here are few facts you should know.

You probably know why alcohol is abused: Relaxation, sociability and cheap high. But did you know that alcohol is a depressant that decreases the responses of the central nervous system? That excessive drinking can cause liver damage and psychotic behavior? That as little as two drinks can impair coordination and thinking and it is often used by substance abusers to enhance the effects of other drugs? Or did you know alcohol continues to be the most frequently abused substance among young adults? For more info about this topic call 07031-15-530.

Safety Award Nominations Accepted

The 6th Area Support Group Safety Office would like to draw the community's attention to outstanding safety efforts taken by service members and employees. Several categories highlight outstanding accomplishments in accident-free driving; contribution to operational safety; contribution in promoting off-duty safety and health; and unit accomplishment in DUI and vehicle accident prevention. Safety award nominations must be submitted to the 6th ASG Civilian Personnel Advisory Center on Kelley Barracks no later than May 10. For more information call Hans Dreizler, 0711-729-2752.

Reserve Recruiter Visits Europe

A U.S. Army Reserve recruiter is now in Heidelberg through April 7 to enlist reserve soldiers into European-based USAR units of the 7th Army Reserve Command. Prior service members interested in joining should contact Master Sgt. Glenn Smith, 06202-80-7701, for details. Those unable to meet with the recruiter should contact the 7th ARCOM Strength Management Office, 06202-80-7828, or e-mail (krampf@hq.7arcom.army.mil) to schedule a future appointment.

SERVICES

Service Order Desk Moving

The Directorate of Public Works service order desk is moving from Patch Barracks (building 2312) to Kelley Barracks (building 3317). The move will be transparent to customers, except for new phone numbers. Effective April 1, the new number will be 0711-729-2640 during duty hours, with after-hour emergency call number remaining the same, 0711-680-115. The service order desk move is designed to streamline the service process provided to customers. The change will enable customers to call all routine service and domestic appliance service requests into one central order desk.

Duty hours are Mondays through Thursdays 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Fridays 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Through March 31, customers will continue to call routine service orders in at 0711-680-7180 and domestic appliance service at 0711-729-2670. The community is thanked for their patience and cooperation during the transition. Questions? Call 0711-729-2807.

Temporary Closings, Changes

The Panzer Dining Facility will be closed after lunch March 22 until breakfast April 1 due to unit deployment.

The post offices on Kelley Barracks and Panzer Kaserne will be closed April 2 and 5 for the USAREUR training holidays. The Patch APO will remain open for business with normal hours. Mail placed in drop boxes will be picked up as usual. Call Staff Sgt. Roe, 0711-729-4241, with questions.

Detachment C, 208th Finance Battalion, will be participating in a Battalion Field Training Exercise the week of April 19 to 23. Therefore, the Finance Office will be closed from noon to 1 p.m. that week. It may also affect customer-waiting times.

As of April 12, new operating hours for the Panzer Kaserne Exchange will be Mondays through Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Sundays from noon to 6 p.m. Call 07031-15-378 for details.

ARC Takes IMPAC Cards

The American Red Cross on Panzer Kaserne now accepts the IMPAC card for all training courses. Questions? Send e-mails to (draks@6asg.army.mil) or call 07031-15-818.

Stores Supplied for Passover, Easter

Passover shopping in area commissaries is all set for the season with three dozen items now available. Shoppers in small stores, where the entire selection may not be available, should talk to a commissary manager about obtaining the desired item from a larger store.

Easter baskets will be easy to fill with the wide variety of candy selections also available. Candy in all colors and shapes from bunnies to eggs will tempt even the most humbug of shoppers. Look for colored plastic wrap to help make your baskets festive. Shoppers in search of baskets already finished will find those too. And, of course, don't forget to buy your egg coloring supplies. Questions? Call your local commissary.

HEALTH

Program Delivers to Pregnant Moms

Are you considering having a child or currently expecting? The Family Advocacy Program administers a supportive program for all expectant women in the Stuttgart military community. In a detailed orientation, the maternal-child nurse addresses some of the cultural differences you may encounter in the German medical system and gives you information to help in your decision making. She will also be your personal liaison, connecting with you by phone and at home to answer any questions. Both classes are offered to U.S. identification cardholders only. For more information call Army Community Service, 0711-680-7176. To register call the Stuttgart Health Clinic, 0711-680-4250.

SPORTS & FITNESS

Club offers Spring Ski trip to Lech

The sun is shining, the air is warm, the snow is good and lift tickets are half price. What more could you want on a spring ski trip April 16 to 18 to the world famous ski area of Lech, Austria?

No crowds, you say. Well, the Patch Ski Club can offer you that too on their last ski trip of the season. Lech is one of Europe's top ski areas in terms of lifts (many new this year), runs, night life and overall ambiance. Vast open slopes, super lift capacity (unimportant this time of year), two fun parks for snow boarders and great mountain restaurants make this one trip not to be missed. Lech features skiing for all levels with most runs blue or red, with a few black and considerable off-piste areas for those so inclined (pun intended).

The cost is 360 marks per person, which includes round-trip bus with snacks and beverages, two overnights in a three-star hotel in town, two breakfasts and one dinner. A two-day adult lift ticket is only 410 Austrian Schillings. To sign up or for more info contact Warren Field at 0711-729-1400 or email (fieldw@6asg.army.mil).

Winning in the Drug War

Watch the military police and area students battle it out in their annual basketball game April 2, 2 p.m. in the Patch High School gymnasium. Door prizes will be handed out to the first 15 people who show up with an anti-drug slogan on their shirt. For details call Sgt. Michael Dodson, 0711-680-4256.

Jazzercise Step Circuit

For fitness, friendship, fun and a total body workout while you're at it, come to the Kelley Fitness Center Mondays and Wednesdays from 6 to 7:10 p.m. Jazzercise classes are also offered Tuesdays and Thursdays, 6 to 7:10 p.m. at the Patch YS. Steps and tubes are provided, but bring your own weights and mats. Complimentary first class is free. Call 0711-4570835 for more information.

Fishing for Something to Do

Fishing season runs through Sept. 30, so schedule a visit to the Rod and Gun Club's own stream in Nagold, about 35 minutes from Patch. But first, be sure to get your permit and stock up on all the gear before you go. The retail store is open Mondays to Fridays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. (closed American holidays). Just drop them a line with questions during operating hours Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., 07031-15-774, or hunt them down in person at the Panzer Community Club, building 3180.

Services Target Hunters

Indoor shooting ranges are open for pistols, .22-.44 cal., Sundays 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Thursdays from 5 to 8 p.m. across from the Panzer Car Care Center. The range is open to identification cardholders and one guest per day. Outdoor ranges, located a half-kilometer from Panzer Kaserne, are open Saturdays, 2 to 6 p.m., weather permitting. Outdoor ranges are for ID cardholders only.

Be sure to also target your calendar for a visit to the Rod and Gun Club retail store during its April sale and get 20 to 50 percent off selected items all month. Layaway plans are available. Hours are Mondays to Fridays, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and closed weekends and U.S. holidays. Call 07031-15774.

THRIFT SHOP

No Fooling Around at RB Store

It's not a joke. The thrift shop on Robinson Barracks will be open April 1 to 3. Shop hours are 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Consignments are accepted 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Stop by the shop in building 196. Call 0711-854-242 for details.

YOUTH & TEEN

What's on the Kelley YS Calendar

Exciting events are on the Kelley Youth Services calendar for kids this month: March 26 is Movie & Dinner Night, 6 to 10 p.m., ages 6 to 12

($5); March 31, children ages 9 to 12 are invited to come on by to make no-bake cookies during Cookin' with Kara, 4 p.m.

Beginning April 1 the Kelley YS will offer pre-gymnastics instruction for children ages 3 to 5. Hour-long classes will be held every Thursday at 3:45 p.m. Cost is $54 per month. For all details contact the YS at 0711-729-2548.

Bingo at the RBYS
